Biotechnology

advanceyourcareer.wisc.edu/degrees/biotechnology

Program Modality
Evening/weekend on-campus

Degree Conferred
Master of Science in Biotechnology

Program Duration
2 years

What You Will Learn
- Synthesize perspectives on intellectual property, patents, and licensing
- Apply concepts of product development, commercial pathways, regulatory affairs, ethics, and biomanufacturing
- Show first-hand knowledge of molecular technologies and drug-discovery topics
- Evaluate business strategies in biotechnology and how they are applied in a competitive marketplace

Advertised Salary
Mean: $93K

Projected National Growth

From 2016 - 2026
- Biochemists and Biophysicists: 8.2%
- Health Services Managers: 16.9%

Top Common Industries
- Pharmaceutical and Medicine Manufacturing
- Scientific Research and Development Services
- Navigational, Measuring, Electromedical, and Control Instruments Manufacturing