Farm & Industry Short Course

Program Modality
On-campus

16 weeks

Credit Certificate in Foundations of Farm Management

What You Will Learn
• Gain research-based knowledge and hands-on skills needed to manage or work in farming and related agribusiness
• Connect with experts in the farming industry and the Wisconsin family farming community
• Develop social, communication, and leadership abilities related to agricultural operations
• Obtain career advising and access to internships and employment information

Advertised Salary
Mean: $46K

Top Common Industries
• Oilseed and Grain Farming
• Cattle Ranching and Farming
• Fruit and Tree Nut Farming
• Support Activities for Crop Production
• Aquaculture

Why UW-Madison
• For over a century, UW-Madison has provided opportunities for generations of farmers to expand their career options through Farm & Industry Short Course
• Credits you earn are transferable to many four-year universities
• Classes are timed to coordinate with the non-growing season in the Midwest
• Return for a second year to earn a specialty certificate in one of the following: dairy farm management; diversified agricultural operations; farm and equipment operations; management of crops and soils; meat animal farm management