Global Higher Education

Program Modality
Accelerated, on-campus

Program Duration
1 year

Degree Conferred
Master of Science in Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis

What You Will Learn
- Develop transnational and intercultural awareness and competence of higher education
- Describe issues, trends, and challenges concerning higher education both domestically and internationally
- Identify and analyze challenges in educational institutions’ engagement with globalized society
- Outline the current trends and focuses in research on higher education in a global context
- Acquire a depth of knowledge about higher education assessment, academic programs, and student services

Projected National Growth
8.7%
From 2016 - 2026 for Postsecondary Education Administrators

Job Postings
13K postings in 2016

Advertised Salary
Mean: $62K