Secondary Education and ESL Certification

Program Modality:
Accelerated, on-campus and local schools

Program Duration:
14 months

Degree Conferred:
Master of Science in Curriculum and Instruction

Projected National Growth:
5.8%
From 2016 - 2026 for Secondary Teachers and Middle School Teachers

What You Will Learn:
- Use theory and practice to create rigorous learning opportunities for students
- Address race, class, and gender in culturally relevant and sustaining ways
- Develop a conceptual understanding so you can foster students' abilities to create deep and connected sets of ideas, relationships, procedures, and concepts

Why UW-Madison:
- You learn from the best: UW-Madison's School of Education has been consistently been ranked No. 1 among public institutions by U.S. News and World Report
- Earn a dual certificate in ESL and one of the following specialties: Social Studies, Science, English, or Math

Advertised Salary:
Mean: $58K